DIRECTORS NOTES

The Jersey Amateur Dramatic Club are delighted to be able to open the Jersey Arts Centre autumn season with 'Choices'. It has been a difficult few months for everyone involved in the performing arts, so it is very exciting to be here!

The original idea for these three plays was that we would produce them as radio plays, which we are still pursuing, but difficulties obtaining the required licences and the relaxation of lockdown restrictions meant that we started to look at the possibility of staging them. It gives us great pleasure to be able to perform here once again, as the Jersey Arts Centre has been a home to so many JADC productions.

The three plays are all linked with the theme of old age, or more importantly, how we look after the elderly in our families and the wider community. This seemed particularly appropriate during lock-down, when the elderly were (and still are) amongst the many who were self-isolating; cut off from family and friends. Despite the seriousness of the subject (or perhaps because of it?) they are all comedies.

We hope that you enjoy the plays,

Debbie, Liz & Liz

The JADC extends very special thanks to Daniel Austin and his team for working so hard to re-open the Jersey Arts Centre, and for their continued support of JADC productions.

In addition we thank Steven Laffoley Edwards & Jason Kenyon of the Jersey Arts Centre for their technical support and JADC Members for their help in making this production happen.

The JADC are pleased to announce that all profits from this production are being donated to the Jersey Arts Centre.
